Dear Liz :

I just want to thank you for having invited me to the Conference. You will have heard that I did not waste any time sleeping while I was there - a clear indication of how much I enjoyed it!

I was enormously impressed and encouraged by all I saw and heard and have tried to put it down in an article I am writing which may appear in the Sunday Independent. I have not directly referred to Corrymeela in the article fearing this might be unwise; and several things in it refer to people I have met elsewhere. But I feel that after this experience I should try to tell the people here in the South of all the good things being done in Northern Ireland.

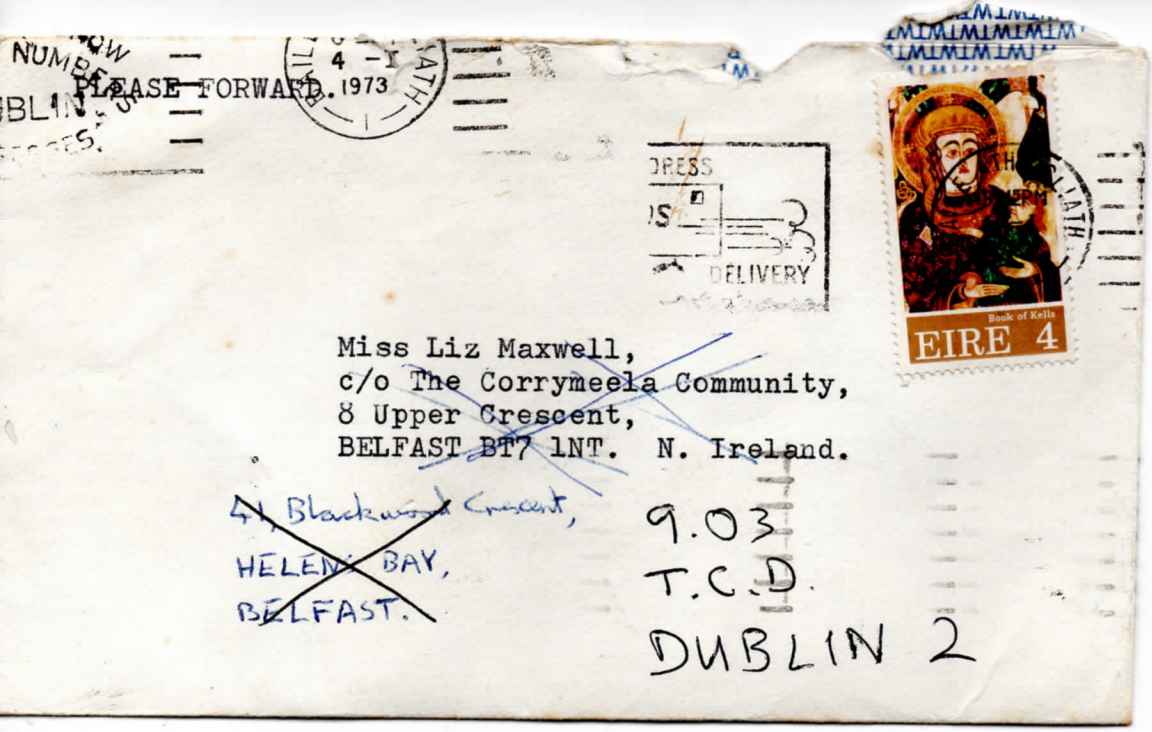

I would like to have Mairead Diamond's address and also that of the girl who was working for the Community Relations Board in East Belfast. Was she Jenny -?

I hope through contacts made there to get a chance to know many more ordinary people especially amongst the Protestant Community.

Every good wish,

Yours sincerely,

Garret FitzGerald.

PLEASE FORWARD.
